"Jesus said to him, 'Go and do likewise.'" Luke 10:37

This was Jesus' command at the end of the Good Samaritan story. But did you know that the Samaritans and Jews despised each other? The moral of the story is to love our neighbor, who may be someone you don't know, someone that looks different than you or someone you don't like, without expecting anything in return.

You can place your envelope in the collection basket next week, drop it off at the parish office, or mail it to Mission office, P.O. Box 551, Jefferson City, MO 65102. If you would like to get on a mailing list to learn more about the missions. Thank you to all who did contribute today. Dear Parishioners of St Clement parish,
It was a pleasure to worship with you this past holiday weekend. Thank you for your hospitality!!!

Please contact my office administrator Julie Wieberg or me in our Vocation Office for any further assistance. Continue to pray for vocations to priesthood and consecrated life. I spoke with you about helping your parish begin a Vocations Committee. I left your parish council a copy of the book "Hundredfold" to to guide you along with your Knights of Columbus Council in starting a Vocation Committee in your parish. I ask that you continue to use the Prayer for Vocations that was on the back of my letter in the bulletin. And, I ask that you to pray for Brad Distler and all of our diocesan seminarians and the women from our dioceses who are in formation in the convent. Prayers are powerful.

Here are two good websites for getting more information on discerning a priesthood vocation. Our diocesan website: discoverthepriesthood.org; and a national website: diocesanpriest.com. Also go to www.NRVC.net or cmswr.org on the web to get more information on consecrated religious life. Thank you again for having me visit your parish last weekend. My contact information is 573-635-9127 ext 260 or my email: vocationdir@diojeffcity.org

Prayers and Blessings,
Fr. Greg Oligschlaeger
