"...I am a minister in accordance with God's stewardship given to me to bring to completion for you the word of God." (Colossians 1:25)

We are all called to evangelize – to continuously grow in our relationship with Jesus and to share it with others. We may not be called to evangelize like St. Paul, but we should look for opportunities to share our faith with those closest to us, like our family, friends and neighbors. Pray for the courage to share your faith the next time the opportunity arises.

PASTOR'S PEN
"GIVE AND YOU SHALL BE BLESSED" We are accustomed to welcoming people to our home. As we open our door for our visitors, we offer them seat and drink of their choice. We don't mind sharing our bread with them provided they will eat. Abraham exhibited the same attitude and he was blessed with a son at his old age. Martha, in the gospel of today, treated Jesus hospitably with little attention to listen to Jesus. That wouldn't have been anything wrong except for her complaint about Mary who likewise made Jesus feel at home.
Water does not travel alone as the saying goes.
We can't be truly hospitable if we fail to make people feel comfortable in our midst. Our offering of water and bread won't do much if we don't smile or talk to people who show up at the door of our church or at our social gathering. We are blessed when we give to the church and by our kindness the needs of others are provided. But more so, we are most blessed when we make people feel at peace wherever we find them. For Christ's sake, let us know that true hospitality therefore goes beyond food, drinks, and money to include tolerance, appreciation, and acceptance. Peace!

Help Needed for Confirmation and R.C.I.A.
Fr. Ussher will need someone to assist him with organizing Confirmation class and preparation of the Sacrament.
The class is expected to be small this year as we are moving toward receiving the Sacrament in the 7th Grade only in the future.

An R.C.I.A. assistant is also needed to assist with classes and as mentors to those interested in joining our church family.

These volunteers will not be on their own to give the classes. You will be an assistant to Fr. Ussher and help with youth, or help as a mentor to those joining our church at Easter. We would appreciate a volunteer for each or two people that work well together.
