"For behold, some are last who will be first and some are first who will be last." (Luke 13:30)

Our standards in society are different from God's standards. We often rank people by what they have, how powerful they are, or how successful they are. Jesus reminds us that God will not judge us by the same earthly standards. When God asks you, "what have you done with the gifts I have given you?" How will you respond?

PASTOR'S PEN
"SELF-DISCIPLINE, GREAT CHRISTIAN VIRTUE" As Christians, we are called to embrace discipline in the form of trials and in the form of self-denial in our faith journey. We are taught to approach every difficult moment with an eye of faith and to overcome it through prayers and all appreciate means. Accepting and coping with times of trials, without losing our faith, we share in the sufferings of Christ. Thus, the author of Hebrews in today's second reading encourages us to accept trials as discipline from God, who so much loves us as his sons and daughters.
In the Gospel, Jesus calls us to discipline ourselves.
Self-discipline is a modus by which we place checks and balances on our desires in order to please God. It entails control of our senses and exhibition of attitudes that identify us as worthy followers of Jesus, the Son of God.
By the virtue of self-discipline, (self-denial), we accept to live here and now for Jesus in accord with his teachings and ways in order to have a place in his kingdom. It is an answer to Jesus' call on us to pass through the narrow gate. This implies accepting to go by what is normal in the eyes Jesus as opposed to what is normal in the wisdom of the world for the sake of the kingdom of God.
Peace!

PSR BEGINS SEPTEMBER 8TH Classes are held on Sunday mornings from 9:20am to 10:15am.
Classes will begin on September 8, 2019 and continue, with breaks for Thanksgiving, Christmas, Easter and other school holidays until April 5, 2020.
Arrival and Dismissal: Children should arrive no later than 9:20 am. Parents are to see to it that their children enter the building when they drop them off. Parents are asked to pick their children up no later than 10:15 am. in front of the building or in the front entry-way during inclement weather.
Attendance: Children who are enrolled in the parish catechetical program are expected to be in attendance each week. It is the responsibility of parents to ensure their presence. Because classes are held only once a week, the child who is absent misses a great deal. If a child should miss class, the curriculum includes activities that can be done at home with the parents.
Registration: In order for children to participate in PSR classes the family must complete the registration and student information form and indicate that they have accepted the policies contained in our handbook.
The director has emailed the information to most parents.
If you do not have any information, the handbooks and calendar are in the back of church God Bless, Let's have a GREAT year!!
