"Everyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple."
(Luke 14:33)

When we first hear this statement, it seems that Jesus is making an unrealistic demand upon us. How can we renounce all of our possessions? We need them to live. However, what we must renounce is the belief that they belong to us. Everything that we have belongs to God alone. All of our resources are entrusted to us not only for our own use, but also so that we can help others. Once we renounce the idea that we possess or are entitled to anything, it is much easier to share the many gifts that God has given us.
Then we truly are His Disciples.

The Women's Ministry Office
The ministry invites you and other women to join our diocesan-wide book club. Our first book is entitled, "Girl, Arise" and is written by Claire Swinarski. This book promises to be "smart, witty, and fearless" with an invitation to "live boldly, love your faith and change the world." Discussion questions will be available on our Facebook page, Jefferson City Diocesan Women's Ministry. The book may be purchased through many outlets including Amazon, or Ava Maria Press. For more info, contact LeAnn Korsmeyer at 573-635-9127.

Healing Service
Tuesday, October 8th at 7:00PM
We will have a healing service every other First Tuesday for those that would like to be anointed with oil and need prayer and healing from illness.

PASTOR'S PEN
"THE MARK OF DISCIPLESHIP"
By virtue of our baptism, as Christians, we have consented to serving God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit. We have placed our faith in God and are determined to live by his laws and decrees. We have vowed to place him first on our agenda from day to day, month to month and year to year till we pass on. For this fact, we deny ourselves of certain interest that conflicts with the interest of our God. We accept to bear with any burden associated with our faith in God. We recognize self-denial as virtue that helps us to please God at the expense of our desires. Letting go of certain desires for the sake of the gospel, to some extent, signifies the bearing of individual cross as indicated by Jesus: "whoever does not take up his cross and follow me cannot be my disciple." The cross here is a symbol of the sacrifice of self-giving. Giving out portions of our time, talent and treasure is a worthy sacrifice of self-giving that we are called to embrace as a mark of our discipleship. Peace!
