"Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?" (Luke 17:18)

Most of us live "easy" lives. We have food, shelter, and clothing. We go on vacation every year and own a car or two. Most of us take this all for granted. Did you ever notice that people with the least amount of possessions are usually the most grateful? Shouldn't this be the other way around? Take time every day and thank God for all He has given you.

BISHOP MCKNIGHT'S PRAYER FOR OCTOBER
 For the cessation of violence; that our communities foster a culture of life and peace by recognizing the dignity of every human being, made in the image and likeness of God.

Catholic STEWARDSHIP APPEAL

"As each one has received a gift, use it to SERVE ONE ANOTHER as good stewards."
 1 PETER 4:10

This weekend we begin the Catholic Stewardship Appeal at our parish. This annual appeal is the primary source of funding for sustaining ministry and assistance for the 110 Catholic churches in the 38 counties that make up the Diocese of Jefferson City. The 2020 CSA theme, "As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards," encourages each of us to give back to God for what we have received. Please pray and give consideration on how you can help with this year's CSA.

PASTOR'S PEN
"APPRECIATION IS COMMENDABLE"
 In our first reading (2Kgs 5:15-17) of today, Naaman, cured of leprosy ,following the instructions of Elisha , acknowledged the power and presence of God in the land of Judah, and he went with gifts to be given to Elisha. Similarly, in the gospel (Luke 17:11-19), a cured Samaritan Leper returned to thank Jesus for his words that has made him whole again.
 The duo, as a matter of fact, showed due appreciation which Elisha, the prophet of God and Jesus, the Son of God, approved or commended.
 God is pleased with us when we recognize his greatness and presence in our life by offering prayer of thanksgivings. Our thanksgivings though add nothing to his greatness. However, thanking God profits us for salvation. It carries with it blessings for the building of strong relationship with God in adoration and worship.
 Thanking people for the good they have done is equally commendable and desirable. It helps boost their moral to do more good works. Refusing to appreciate persons for their accomplishments often times dumps their spirit. It doesn't also encourage others to give out their best. Though, we don't serve the Lord or do something in the name of the Lord for praises, yet God doesn't condemn us when we are acknowledged for the good we have done. In line with this, I say a big thank you to you all for the demonstration of your faith in the participation of the Eucharist and your generous offerings that come in to maintain the Church of God and to evangelize for the salvation of souls. Peace!

PRAYER FOR A STEWARDSHIP PARISH
 My parish is composed of people like me. I help make it what it is. It will be friendly, if I am. It will be holy, if I am. Its pews will be filled, if I help fill them. It will do great work, if I work. It will be prayerful, if I pray. It will make generous gifts to many causes, if I am a generous giver. It will bring others into worship, if I invite and bring them in. It will be a parish of loyalty and love, of fearlessness and faith, of compassion, charity and mercy, if I, who make it what it is, am filled with these same things. Therefore, with the help of God, I now dedicate myself to the task of being all things that I want my parish to be. Amen.
