"...for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted." (Luke 18:14)

Pride and ego is the root cause of most of our sins. Thinking your time is so valuable, your talent is better than anyone else and your money gives you status is another way of making those things "gods" before God. Remember all those gifts were God-given. Instead we should be humbled by God's abundant generosity and our hearts should overflow with gratitude.

PASTOR'S PEN
"A humble, contrite heart, O, Lord...."
 We serve the Lord, the God of justice, who knows no favorites. In his presence, he judges and apportions our due. When we gather to worship, we seek his will and not to justify ourselves for who we are or for what we have done, as did the Pharisees of old.
 For all we know, our religious acts, such as prayer, fasting and abstinence, are not signs of our righteousness. In much the same, payment of tithes, dues and weekly offerings, though religious requirements, are not a measure of our holiness. Nevertheless, religious acts or requirements can obtain for us graces which we need to cooperate with to become righteous people.
 We are righteous when we reflect the attributes of God. God is just, kind, merciful, loving, compassionate and forgiving. We are called be like God in all things. And the grace that comes to us through religious acts are to help us put on the image of God. As we wear the image of God, we do not become our own judges nor judges of others. Rather, abiding in grace, we long do God's will and rely on his mercy for our justification. For this we pray,
"God be merciful to me, a sinner."
 Peace!
