"No servant can serve two masters. He will hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon (wealth)." (Luke 16:13)

Do you put money before God?
Giving money to support the Church and other charity is a pillar of our faith, just like attending Mass every Sunday and participating in parish ministry. Giving money frees us from being a slave to money. It increases our dependence on God and our trust that God will provide all that we need.

PASTOR'S PEN
"CHEATING & STEALING AS SOCIAL SIN" Everyone goes into business to make money from profit. To gain profit is generally an accepted norm in free market system. However, to make profit of 40% and above is profiteering. Profiteering is sinful act that bothers on cheating or stealing. It was social sin in the days of Prophet Amos which he spoke against in our first reading.
In our days, cheating, stealing and bullying are common practices in our economic setups. We are either made to pay more for good and services or lured to buy inferior goods.
Developed nations in the international market set up prices of goods to their advantage. They bully poor and less developed nations with hard to bear conditions on loans and grants and make them highly indebtedness. In local markets of some countries where price control does not exist, the people in society are robbed of the little they have. The system has become so complex that we seem to have little control. The only way out is to pray for business owners and leaders of developed nations to become godly. To this effect St. Paul in our second reading calls us to pray for everyone, notably Kings and Authority.
On the other side of the coin, are those of us who pay our employees less than what they deserve. Some of us who are engaged to work and manage people's business too turn to help ourselves out. This makes us bad stewards. Jesus in the parade admonishes us to refrain from dishonest behaviors and be accountable and responsible workers or business owners.
Peace!
