CHURCH OFFICE IS CLOSED
UNLESS IT IS AN EMERGENCY

We ask that you only come to do face to face business after you have made an appointment.
We need to keep our staff and priest free from illness. Thank you for your patience!

"Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth."

(Colossians 3:2)

Do you put God first in all things?
Possessions, money, power, ego can easily become gods to many of us. Do a quick check of what is important to you. Is God at the very top of the list? If not, your priorities need to be readjusted. Don't let earthly things become a god before God. This is also the first commandment – I am the Lord your God, you shall not have any strange gods before me.

Pope Francis' Prayer to Mary
 O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and of hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection.
 Amen.
 Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin.

Anointing of the Sick.
 Please call Fr. Ussher before going to hospital if at all possible.

Awaken Us

Lord of all hopefulness, awaken us. Show us the meaning in our toil That we may ever rejoice in the promise of the seeds we sow.	Lord of all peace, awaken us. Show us the heart that stills even raging waters That we may make still raging hearts, and reconcile warring neighbors.
Lord of all righteousness, awaken us. Show us the good path That we may walk in confidence in Your wisdom and understanding.	Lord of all charity, awaken us. Teach us of the unending return on our sacrifice That we may rejoice more fully in our giving.
Lord of all hospitality, awaken us. Show us the refuge of eagles' wings That we may always be people of shelter in times of storm.	Lord, you have eyes for the just and ears for their cry. Awaken in us a heart of justice That you may count us among their number.
Lord of all freedom, awaken us. Show us the courage that called our forefathers out of bondage That we may always stand with the bound and the oppressed, and be their champions.	Amen

“ALLELUIA, THE LORD IS RISEN”

Before Jesus was put to death and rose triumphantly, he has raised Lazarus from dead, after four days in the tomb. In the discourse between him and Martha, that preceded his miraculous action, Jesus assured his followers that he is “the resurrection and the life” and that all those who believe in him, shall live even if they die. Like Martha and Mary, we believe that Jesus is our life and salvation. He is alive and we shall live with him in eternity. Here on earth, we witness to his resurrection proclaimed by the angel and announced to the twelve by Mary Magdalene.

Today, we join Christians everywhere to echo the voice of the angels “He is Risen” as he said. We claim our salvation from sin and death. We sing alleluia and glorify the Lord of power, mercy and love, and ask that the power of his resurrection shall heal our world infected with coronavirus. As redeemed sons and daughters of God, we hope for better things to come. We endeavor to live a life of faithfulness and commitment to the goodness of our world.

With many lessons learnt from the current pandemic, we must resolve to live in the fear of God and to do what is good, not only to ourselves but to all we meet. We must resolve to be humble and loving, and work to ensure what is essential and basic needs of all. We realize, up to this time, that we are all vulnerable, despite our positions, and that in Jesus alone lies our freedom, peace and happiness. He is our risen Lord and our supreme Judge, with the Father and the Holy Spirit. Peace!
