"Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, 'Peace be with you.'"
(John 20:19)

Are you good at making people feel welcome? When you meet someone new, like a new neighbor, a new work colleague or a new parishioner, do you make them feel at home? Many of us can probably do a much better job at this. When we make people feel welcome, we make them feel like they are included instead of being excluded. We are made for relationships – with God and each other. A simple "hello" and a smile goes a long way.

Pope Francis' Prayer to Mary
 O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and of hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection.
 Amen.
 Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin.

Anointing of the Sick. Please call Fr. Ussher before going to hospital if at all possible.

MASS INTENTIONS ARE RUNNING LOW
 There are only 10 people with stipends set up for Mass rotation. That makes the rotation very frequent, and after those are gone we will be without any at all. Please consider having Masses said for your loved ones. Thank you!

“HIS MERCY ENDURES FOREVER”

The steadfast of love of the Lord never ceases; his faithfulness shall never come to an end ; they are new every morning...” Love and mercy are twin attribute of God. His love for us caused him to sent his only begotten son, Jesus Christ, to suffer and die for our redemption. By loving us that much, God acted mercifully. He revealed to us the face of his mercy by Jesus’ suffering, death and resurrection.

In Jesus, we have been shown mercy that has brought us forgiveness and reconciled with God, our Father. And so, it fitting for us to celebrate a day that acknowledges and focuses on the Divine Mercy of God. This celebration is meant to remind all of us that we are saved by grace and not by merit.

The kind of persons we have become is by God’s merciful act, borne out of his love, for us. Having been loved much, we are to reciprocate God’s act of mercy towards us by treating others with merciful hand. If we do , we embrace the peace that Jesus offers; we strive to live peacefully as united community of faith, who are committed to the breaking of bread and witnessing to the truth. Peace!
