“...whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me.” (Matthew 10:38)

Pope Benedict XVI said, “The world offers you comfort. But you were not made for comfort, you were made for greatness.” “Comfort” puts me first. “Picking up your cross and following Jesus” puts God and others first. Why settle for comfort when you can achieve greatness! Pick up your cross, ask Jesus for guidance on using your gifts and live the life God intended for you!

PASTOR'S PEN

MINISTRY OF HOSPITALITY

“Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me. Whoever receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet's reward.” We all need a place to rest in the course of the day, at home or in abroad. We need people to welcome us into their community and to even accommodate us when we are stranded. We need some refreshment after emotional stress and worries beyond our strength.

Jesus is the first one refreshes our spirit with words of comfort. In throughout his earthly ministry, he offers us his arms to embrace us and to accommodate us. He assures us of a place of rest and encourages us to live after him. He wants us to receive those he sent and we shall be blessed. “And whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink because the little one is a disciple - amen, I say to you, he will surely not lose his reward” (Mt 10: 37-42). In the spirit of humility we can bear any yoke of life through faith in Christ. In relation to Christ, we must die to sin constantly for the perfect reward that only Christ can give.

Just as Jesus Christ welcomes us, we must welcome one another. We must accommodate all in our midst. Accommodating all evolves through the ministry of hospitality. We need only not to greet people at our doors, but rather help them in every need. We need to guide new members and help them to acclimatized. This is a ministry of love and care for all, and we see it demonstrated by the woman and her husband to Elisha on his prophetic journeys. (2Kings 4:8-16a). Let us pray to be hospitable servants of God. Peace!
