“For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son...” (John 3:16)

Is your love conditional? Is there a price others have to pay to receive your love and forgiveness? Are you generous with your time, skills, money, and possessions? If you give someone something, do you expect something in return? Do you give your time freely or do you “fit it in” when it’s convenient for you? God desires a personal relationship with us so much that He gave us His Son, unconditionally! Pray for a grateful and generous heart.

Regarding the death of George Floyd...

This tragedy tears open a wound that hasn't completely healed in Missouri following the death of Michael Brown. It also once again opens up our state and nation to unnecessary violence and destruction.

We wish to clearly state that we denounce police brutality in any form, especially in any form motivated by racism, or by a disregard for persons based upon the color of their skin. We also denounce violence and property destruction as a means of countering violence.

We must find a way to live peacefully together, respecting the racial and ethnic differences among us.

Racial and ethnic injustice continues to exist in our state and in our country, and we cannot turn a blind eye to it. We must ask ourselves what systemic changes are needed to address it. We must also honestly examine our hearts and ask God to eradicate any vestige of it that might lie there. We cannot do this on our own.

No human power can eradicate racism; we need the assistance of a higher power. We call upon Catholics and all people of good will to pray for an end to racism, bias, and prejudice within ourselves and within our communities.

Recalling the gift of Pentecost celebrated this past weekend, through which God sends the Holy Spirit to unite a scattered and divided human family, may the Holy Spirit guide us into all truth concerning the dignity of every human person, and may Jesus Christ gather us together into fellowship with the Father.

———Most Rev. Bishop Shawn McKnight

PASTOR'S PEN
"GOD THE FATHER, THE SON, & THE HOLY SPIRIT"

"Most ancient of all mysteries; before your throne we lie. Have mercy now, most merciful; Most Holy Trinity "- We serve an an awesome God, whom we know as the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. He is the Lord of Mercy who is slow to anger but rich in kindness and fidelity (Ex 34:4-9)

The most Holy Trinity is the creator, the redeemer and sanctifier. He is mysterious being whose deeds are full of mystery. In mysteries, his might is manifested and his endless love for mankind, prevailed. His love is unconditional and perfect and in that his mercy is shown towards all. He doesn't treat us according to his might but with merciful hands of justice.

On our part, we need to rejoice, mend our ways and encourage one another to merit grace (2 Cor 13:11-13)

We who serve Him are called to live in fear of Him. Living in fear of the Most Trinity doesn't imply being afraid of Him. Rather, what it means is to revere Him in all loyalty and obedience to His will. We revere God, if we please Him in words and deeds. We can't please God, unless we adhere to His commandments. The Holy Trinity is God of love and we must trust in His love for us and remain faithful to Him (John 3:16-18) Peace!
