“For my yoke is easy, and my burden light.” (Matthew 11:30)

When we think of being good stewards, we may think that God is asking too much of us when He calls us to generously share our time, talent, and treasure. However, we must remember that we are not “owners” of anything, we are merely “stewards” of the gifts God has given us. All He is asking is that we give back a small portion, in gratitude, of what He has already given to us.

Bishop McKnight's July prayer intention for our Local Church

For the unity of our country: that the God of truth may open our hearts to the truth of the Gospel, that peace may rule our hearts, and that justice may guide our nation of one people of many races.

Annual Diocesan Mission Collection

The annual Diocesan Mission Collection, held this year the weekend of July 18-19, helps share the mercy of God with hundreds of hungry children and thousands in need of health care. It helps maintain mission parishes in Peru and establish new ones in the tribal lands of India. It allows us to share our resources with poorer foreign dioceses who are sharing their priests with us. Together, through the Diocesan Mission Collection, we are the Good Samaritan,

THE YOKE OF JESUS

“ .....Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy and my burden light “( Mt 11: 25-30)

The yoke of Jesus that was burdensome is 'Love'. For the love he has for mankind, he left behind his glory and humbly became man like us in all things, but sin. Love caused him to teach us the ways of God, to suffer humiliation and to die shamefully on the Cross. He humbly played his saving role amidst opposing force and the challenges at the time. And when he has succeeded, he gloriously ascended into his Kingdom of Bliss.

The kingdom of Heaven is a promise to us for eternal happiness. It is there that we shall find perfect rest. To get there, we need to follow the path Jesus has traced for us. Therefore, appropriately, Jesus is constantly calling us to go to him. He is inviting us to learn his ways and be humble and meek like him. Truly in the spirit of humility and meekness, we can stoop to conquer the world. And with love as our yoke, we can bear the burden of following Jesus. Peace!
