“For the gifts and the call of God are irrevocable.” (Romans 11:29)

God has a special mission in mind for each of us. He has given us the gifts we need to accomplish that mission. We are called to be good stewards by using those gifts to do the work that He has planned for each of us. If we deny our gifts or fail to use them as God calls us to use them, then some part of His work will be left undone.

Preventing text and email scams
Again this past week some of our priests were targets of an ongoing phishing scam involving emails purportedly from Bishop McKnight. This scam has hit many parishes across the United States, as well as other faith communities. The Federal Trade Commission provided information on this scam in July 2019. The email or text purports to be from a person the target knows, such as one's pastor, a parish staff member, the bishop or someone else from the Church. If the target responds to the fake email or text, the sender will follow up with a request for some sort of monetary assistance, often for gift cards, Google Play cards or iTunes cards. Please read our post to learn how to prevent yourself or parishioners from falling prey to this scam.

ELECTRONIC GIVING
FYI- If you are using the donation button on the website, we just want to let you know that your offering is actually lower than what you enter. Their are fee/charges attached to the transaction. We just want you to be aware that there are fees associated to the transaction depending on which card you choose to use. Thank you so much for your generosity

“HOUSE OF PRAYER FOR ALL”

Salvation is meant for all but attainable by those who believe and do the will of God. Jesus died for the redemption of all from the sin of disobedience that closed the heavenly gate. Now the heavenly gate is widely opened to all to enter therein. However, those who want to enter must observe what is right and do what is just (Jer 56: 1 - 7).

All are welcome to the house of God to pray and to hear his word. In the house of God our prayer will be answered and our sacrifices will be accepted for the blessings we desire. This God has assured us through his prophet when he proclaimed: “their burnt offerings and sacrifices will be acceptable on my altar, for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all(Jer 56: 6-7). God, through his son, has called all of us and out his mercy, has brought us to the path of salvation. All we need is to have faith in him and make every effort to be pleasing in his sight. To this end, St. Paul proclaimed “
For God delivered all to disobedience, that he might have mercy upon all” (Rom 11: 29 -32).

As believers, we have come into God’s merciful presence, and like the Canaanite woman, we are pleading for a cure from our sins and from viral infection. With the Psalmist we say “May God have pity on us and bless us; may he let his face shine upon us.....” (Ps 67 : 2 - 3). Peace!
