“What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?”
(Matthew 16:26)

St. Francis of Assisi once said, “Remember, you are what you are in the eyes of God, and nothing else.”
We often forget this stewardship wisdom when we spend all of our time, talent, and treasure to gain more of the world’s riches. We need to set our priorities based on God’s values and not the values of the material world.

THE COST OF DISCIPLESHIP

We can't be true followers of a person only to rejoice with him, but despise him when there is a mountain for us to climb with him. A good friend is the one who hangs around with you either in rain or shining days. He is a person who will be there for you no matter the cost. Jesus, our Lord, is that good friend who has called us to follow him.

To be faithful followers, we have to bear our burdens and make all the necessary sacrifice to remain on the path of Jesus. We must be ready to rejoice when the opportunity comes and be equally ready to live through difficult times. This means we must keep to our 'yes' at any instance as disciples of Jesus, the Lord. There is a cost for us to pay and a benefit for us to enjoy. We have to carry with Jesus his 'cross' for our redemption in order to have a share in his glory.

To share in the glory of Jesus requires us to deny ourselves of certain pleasures and ways of life to embrace Jesus's way. Forgoing our desired ways for the sake of Jesus is a hallmark of discipleship: It is about paying a price of eternal reward. ".....For the Son of Man will come with his angels in his Father's glory, and then he will repay all according to his conduct." (Mt 16 :21-27).
Let us pray for grace to be true followers for eternal reward. Peace!
