“So the last will be first and the first last.”
- Matthew 20:16

You’ve heard the saying “it’s not where you start, but how you finish.” This certainly applies to this Bible passage. We have a responsibility not only for our own lives, but for the lives of others as well.
We are called to generously share our gifts with others, not hoard them for our own use. Our sincere gratitude and cheerful generosity will help us live “God-centered” lives and not “self-centered” lives.

Do You Want Flowers from the Church or Rectory Garden??
 The gardening committee is going to revamp the church and rectory gardens!
 Please take some flowers or starts of perennials by September 24th.
 After September 24th the gardening committee will be emptying out the flower beds of what remains and will spray the beds down to remove the weeds. The flower beds will then be cleaned out and new rock and large flower planters placed back in them. The more flowers that are removed, the easier it will be on the gardening committee! Thank You!
 Please be patient as this may be an eye sore until it is all finished!

WORKING IN GOD'S VINEYARD

As employee in a company or institution, the hours of work you carry out determines your salary. You are free to move from one job to another, go on retirement before even retirement age and also aspires for promotion. You are entitled to break, annual leave and holidays. You have that opportunity because you live and participate in human economy with set of regulations.

As Christians, we live and work in the economy of salvation. We are called to serve God and our fellow human beings for equal wage regardless of hours we spend. From the very hour of our call to follow Jesus, we are to work all our life for agreed wage - eternal life or crown of glory with everlasting life. We have no retirement age or package and no leave. We risk losing our wage if we choose to go on break or for holiday and fail to return to work in time before the hour of death.

We are workers of God's business for the salvation of our souls and that of others. We seek the face of God (Is 55:6-9), we aim at living for Christ and dying for him while echoing the words of St. Paul, "For me life is Christ, death is gain" (Phil 1: 20- 24), and we hope to receive the promised [wage when our work is done (Mt 20: 1-16)]. Peace!
