28th Sunday in Ordinary Time
"My God will supply whatever you need..." -
Philippians 4:19

God really does provide for those who are grateful and generous. This is very difficult for people that don't live a stewardship lifestyle to believe. People are skeptical and say it's just coincidence. If you are skeptical, try living a stewardship lifestyle for just one month – be generous with your gifts of time in prayer, talent in charitable works and treasure and see how God provides for your needs.

WEDDING GARMENT
 At our baptism, we were clothed with white garment and we were told to keep it unstained throughout our Christian life. In other words, we were told to embrace a life of purity or life of holiness in order to be identified with Christ. We are by our baptism then called to live like Christ in order to sit at the table of his eternal banquet. In the gospel of today, a man is thrown out from a wedding banquet by the host because he was not dressed with required garment. In relation to the above, we could probably say the man might have stained his baptismal garment or even failed to live the Christian faith to an end. If that is the case, then we must as well take note that the man can be anyone of us. "Many have been called, but few are chosen", said the Lord. And we are among the chosen few, yet we still have to keep our identity to an end.
 To do this, we need to be men and women of prayer, virtuous living, and in communion with Christ and his Church ( Mt 22:1-14).
 Let us pray for grace to embrace a life of purity.

Bishop McKnight's
October prayer intention
for our Local Church

For all citizens in our country, that our participation in the upcoming elections may lead to a world which places a preeminence on the dignity of all human life.
