“The stone the builders rejected has become the corner stone...” - Matthew 21:42

Jesus was rejected by the religious and political leaders of his day, as well as ordinary citizens. Living a stewardship lifestyle may cause you to be “rejected” by others in today’s society. For example, saying grace before a meal in a restaurant
may attract some strange looks from some. But to others it is sign that God is alive and well!

Bishop McKnight's October prayer intention for our Local Church

For all citizens in our country, that our participation in the upcoming elections may lead to a world which places a preeminence on the dignity of all human life.

IN GOD'S VINEYARD

The Church or the world at large is the vineyard of God. We are in the church or the world as caretakers and each one of us is working for the salvation of his soul. However, none of us, can attain his or her goal in isolation. We need one another as workers in the vineyard. As we take good care of ourselves to be productive, we are required to ensure the good of others. We are, in fact, to live as responsible individuals and be ready to account for what we do.

We have the responsibility to react with God's grace and to follow on the path he has traced for us. It is when we are able to keep to the rules of the game that we can succeed. (Is 5:1-7). It is when we have done what we are told to do that we can faithfully account to the owner of the vineyard. We shall be thrown out of the vineyard if we fail to offer the produce on demand. (Mt 21:33-43).

By all standards, we can succeed and render desired account if we look out for what is worthy of us. For this reason, St. Paul exhorts us today with his words : "Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing what you have learned and received and heard and seen in me. Then the God of peace will be with you" (Philippians 4:6-9).

Let us pray for grace to do the will of God. Peace!
