1st Sunday of Advent

“But when these signs begin to happen, stand erect and raise your heads because your redemption is at hand.”
(Luke 21:28)

We celebrate Advent each year in preparation for the birth of Jesus, His first coming, as we await His second coming. What will you do differently this Advent season to grow in friendship and love with Jesus? How will you inspire others to do the same? Start by sharing your God story with others, especially those closest to you. Invite and accompany them on their faith journey this Advent.

Avoiding Rumors
WE are NOT teaching Critical Race Theory (CRT) in our St. Clement school or in any school in our diocese. The Bishop has not allowed this in our schools. This goes against our standard of teaching of our Catholic faith. If you have any questions please come speak with Fr. Ussher and please do not spread rumors.

Funeral Luncheon
Please contact Mary Carol Niemeyer 324-2808 for a funeral luncheon.
Please contact Fern Grote at 573-324-5660 to help donate chicken for the meal.

ADVENT, A PERIOD OF WAITING
A period of waiting is an aspect of daily routine of human life. There is a waiting time for boarding a bus, train and plane. We wait to be served at a restaurant, store, bank and offices. We also wait at a game of football or church service, we have to wait for the start of it. We are used to a period of waiting. In fact a period of waiting is part of our life for various reasons and purposes. Advent is one such time we call "a period of waiting". It is a time of living in anticipation for festive celebration of the birthday of Jesus, and also for his second coming. This waiting period is a time for preparation in two ways: physical preparation and spiritual preparation. Our physical preparation includes, among others, decorations, food and drinks, music and amusement. We need to do this to make our celebration very festive. For our spiritual preparation, which is of great importance, we must spend time in prayer, scriptural reading and meditation. We must extend a hand of care, love and help to those in need. We need to stay pure in mind and blameless in holiness. To this effect, St. Paul asks God to strengthen our hearts to be blameless in holiness before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his holy ones while exhorting us to conduct ourselves to please God by keeping to moral instructions (1Thessalonians 3:12-4:2). We see the needs of God's grace to aid us in this preparation. Advent is a time to live a gracious life or to act graciously for the Lord's coming. To be in the state of grace, when the Lord appears, we pray with the Psalmist that God will teach us his ways: " Your ways, O Lord, make known to me; teach me your paths, guide me in your truth and teach me, for you are God my savior, and for you I wait all the day" (Psalm 25:4-5). For all you know, the Lord will come at unexpectedly and so we have wait in prayer and in holiness of life. Peace!
Fr Ussher
