31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

"But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, 'Behold, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor, and if I extorted anything from anyone I shall repay it four times over.'" LUKE 19:8

We are all called to gratefully give back to the Lord in proportion to the gifts we have been given. This means everyone isn't called to give the same amount, but everyone is called to give equal sacrifice. Open your heart and talk to God about how you use your money. How is God calling you to be more generous with your financial resources and possessions?

STAY WITH US, LORD!

“The Lord is gracious and merciful; slow to anger and of great kindness. The Lord is good to all and compassionate toward all his works “ ( Psalm 145:8-9 ). The words of the Psalmist quoted above are true statements from a person who has experienced the love and kindness of God. It is an acknowledgement of lovely and tender treatment of a Lord to his subject. That kind of treatment is what we have all received from the Lord, our God who has become our Salvation.

We have heard the Lord's voice that bids us to come to him. He has declared his intention to stay with us. Like Zacchaeus, we must come out from our hiding places and receive him, and plead with him to stay with us. In our minds and hearts, we must feel the presence of the Lord and constantly long to drink from his well of salvation: That is to say to experience the Lord's everlasting mercy and kindness that bring forgiveness and restoration.

As the deer panted for the water, the soul of Zacchaeus longed for the Lord. He found him and he was offered salvation. We must, at every day of our life, long to see the face of the Lord. We must have real thirst for his mercy and kindness; and make every effort to receive him by participating in the sacrament of the Holy Eucharist. We must plead with him to stay with us, as did the Emmaus disciples. Let us all remember that the “Son of man has come to seek and save what was lost” ( Luke 19:10b ). We are sinners, saved by grace! Peace!

Fr. Ussher
